

MAVILL LEEGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1895.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "coupons" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter five dollars of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business enterprise. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements accepted should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Question of Cuts

Upon The Ledger for two months have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.

Reservations, favors, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for editorial notices, resolutions of respect, &c. The Ledger will charge five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the reasonable rate. This, however.

Does Not Include

Notices of Lodge meetings or church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in this paper is to be a constant reminder to subscribers and advertisers. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. "I'll let you know to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. He has no time to do so. When he reads the notice in the paper, a "kick" and a controversy, followed by a long and tedious fight, to obtain this notice, an "old" notice, which will be a constant reminder to subscribers and advertisers. The rate for business notices in this paper is to be a constant reminder to subscribers and advertisers.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends staying over, or if you are staying over, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. E. Stanley Lee is at Bluefield, W. Va., on a business trip.

Constable S. J. Nowler of Dover was in Maysville Tuesday on business.

Mr. Adolph Scherzer and son Fred of Cincinnati are in town visiting relatives.

Miss Jessie Carlisle of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, is visiting Miss Margaret Hill of West Second street.

Mrs. Dr. F. J. Locke of Newart is spending the week with the family of her father, Squire John G. Grant.

Mr. Charles A. Wood returned yesterday to Middleborough after spending several weeks with his parents.

Miss Helen Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nelson, is home from Cincinnati after a pleasant visit to relatives.

Mr. Will N. Stockton started out Tuesday night for Kentucky, W. Va., in the interest of E. A. Robinson's Limestone Cigar Factory.

Mr. W. H. Means and Mr. George H. Wood, Superintendent of the Mayville Shoe Factory, left yesterday for Cincinnati and Memphis on business.

Miss Kate Brierley handsomely entertained a number of her friends Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy of the Fifth Ward are rejoicing on the arrival of their first born, a son.

Mrs. Alice O'Mara has discontinued the ration business in connection with her grocery on Market street.

Stockholders of the Mason County Building Association are requested to call today at the Bank of Mayville and get their dividends.

Yesterday Colonel R. K. Hoeflich, Treasurer, paid out $7,040.30 in dividends to stockholders of the Mason County Building Association.

Judge Paynter in this week engaged in becoming a resident of that hole in the ground partially filled by the Peabody and the State Capital.

M. F. Coughlin, who has been conducting a saloon in the "Arcade," has quit business, and has leased his fixtures to Joseph Metcalfe, who will occupy the "Arcade."

Thomas Neal of this city has been a partner of the drygoods firm of George Cox & Son for fifty-five years, and twenty-two years of that period he has furnished milk to members of the firm. And in all that time there has never been an error in the accounts of either, not the slightest controversy. This is certainly a remarkable record.

Colonel William B. Grant, who advertised in The Ledger for $10 he had lost, is in this morning to say that it was found by Messrs. Sam and Louis Metzger of the Fifth Ward, and was returned to him through the notice in The Ledger.

James proves two things—that the little boys who found the money were honest, and that it pays to advertise in The Ledger. Now is the time to send your copy.

THE BREAD THAT MOTHER MADE.
You may write about your toothache pie,
your pudding's sweet and rich;
You may give receipts plenty, too, for soups,
for hams and such;
You can talk about your doughnuts, and your
jelly rolls and cake;
But I'd rather have a piece of bread like mother used to make!
The bread she baked before you were born
is just as good as now;
And for satisfying hunger doesn't any further
go;
It's just a "whited sepulcher," it is an "no take."
Oh, I wish I had a piece of bread like mother used to make!

It was when I was a schoolboy, "fore I started for the cow
I'd scour the pantry for a lunch—I wish I had one now!
A plenty of golden butter and of pear
serves I'd take,
And pile it on that splendid bread that mother
used to make!
At good, old-fashioned cookin' mother was a master hand;
At good, old-fashioned eatin' her son on a hand could stand;
I never slighted anything, from pickles up
to cake;
But you'd ought to see me reach for bread
that mother used to make!

The truth to you I tell, now, it nearly turns my head;
When I see the white, unnatural stuff they
pass to us for bread,
This color don't suit the fashion now; it's fruit
we have to take—
But 'tain't a patchin' to the bread that mother
used to make!
—Eugene Light.

IN HOC SVLL O VICES!

Officers Land a Well Known Member of a Thieving Gang.

Pete Stevenson of Covington was arrested last Friday by Special Agent E. W. Fitzgerald and Detective Gaffney of the Covington Police Force on a charge of breaking into and robbing a C. and O. freight car.

On searching their prisoner the officers found some goods that were stolen from W. A. P. Lantry at Dover on the night of December 25th.

The officers went to Dover and located all of the stolen goods.

The stuff, which consisted of shoes, shirts, pants and handkerchiefs belonging to Mr. Lantry, and a pair of pants and a gum coat that were stolen from the car near the depot in this city, was found in a sack under a barn.

A brace and bit were also found on Stevenson. The bit fit the holes bored in the store door at Dover through which the thief effected an entrance.

Judge Atty of Covington sent the prisoner to this city in charge of the officers who made the arrest.

He was taken before Squire Grant last night and sent to jail in default of $500. Stevenson belongs to a gang of thieves who operate in the railroad yards in Covington and Cincinnati.

When clothing is stolen by them in Cincinnati it is colored and all the marks removed, and it is sold in Covington, and vice versa.

BRIDE'S SUPPER PARTY.

A Woman's Woman's Way of Sharing Her Happiness.

A pretty story is told of a recent New Orleans bride, a social belle, who on account of her rare beauty and grace, is known among her friends by the name of Venus. Now, all brides have to purchase their trousseau, but it is not every bride that would have thought out the graceful deed that this bride did.

Her purchases were made at a leading store, and in all, counting the various departments, she was called upon to contribute their beautiful store to the trousseau, 15 young ladies served the bonnie bride-elect. She managed in some way to get the name of each one, and, when her wedding invitations were issued, each of these 15 young ladies received a dainty bidding to the church. Now, more.

At 6 p. m., the hour at which the bridal cortege, flushed with excitement from the beautiful church ceremony, entered the home of the bride, these 15 young women, busy at work behind the store counters, were summoned by their employers to the rear of the establishment.

There they found a sumptuous repast spread, with all manner of dainty cakes and confections. Accompanying the fine bridal supper was a letter which the employer read to the assembled girls. It was from the beautiful girl bride whom they had served so graciously, and she told them how she could not be happy on this day without letting them feel a glow of the happiness that had come to her.

James Chandler, aged about 70, died Tuesday afternoon at his home on Lawrence Creek. His wife, a son, Mr. Frank Chandler, and a daughter, Mrs. Collins Ricketts, survive. Funeral this morning at 11:30 at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek, services by Rev. W. W. Hall.

BROOKING!

SOME SEQUELS TO THE LATE REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Returning Prosperity—Factories Starting Up—Work for American Workmen.

Below the election THE LEADER argued that Republican success meant a restoration of confidence, the opening of American factories and workshops, the return of business to its normal channels, profitable and steady employment for American workmen, and an era of renewed prosperity all about the time. That the hopes held out by THE LEADER were not false ones is being fully demonstrated. Here are a few evidences of the business revival that is reaching the heart of the great Republic every day.

The eight-inch mill of the Indiana Iron Company at Muncie in one night recently turned out $1,700 pounds of 1 inch rods.

The Valley Mill at Youngstown has two puddling and two finishing mills, also a blast furnace will be blown out soon and other repairs made.

The Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works Company's new tinplate mill at Richmond, Va., was not destroyed by the late fire; only the building was damaged. Operations have been resumed.

The continuous mill of the American Iron and Steel Works turned out 200 tons of 13 and 2 inch billets in one day recently. At the same establishment two Bessemer converters produced 1,300 tons of steel in twenty-four hours.

The bridge works at Youngstown are running full in every department. At present they are engaged in constructing large movable dams to be placed in Great Kanawha river. This work is being done for the United States Government.
